Sedgwick names Elizabeth Demaret chief customer relationship officer

Memphis, Tenn., September 6, 2012 – Sedgwick Claims Management Services, Inc. (Sedgwick) announced today that Elizabeth Demaret will join the company as chief customer relationship officer, effective September 10, 2012.

Demaret brings to Sedgwick nearly 20 years of experience in account management as well as general management in the insurance industry. She most recently served as chief operating officer, multinational client services for Marsh. Demaret has also served in leadership roles for Arthur J. Gallagher & Co., Ltd, Near North National Group, Home Insurance Company and ACE Insurance.

She holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in economics, political science and urban studies from the University of Richmond, Richmond, VA. Demaret is the incoming chairperson of the World Federation of Insurance Intermediaries which seeks to represent national and regional brokerage associations worldwide with regard to common issues facing insurance intermediaries.

“Elizabeth Demaret has outstanding professional credentials as well as significant client management and international business development experience” said Paul Posey, Sedgwick’s chief operating officer. “We look forward to her contributions to our organization’s success.”
