

Sedgwick's Dave North appointed to University of Memphis local governing board

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Oct. 17, 2016 – Dave North, president and CEO of Sedgwick, is one of eight business leaders appointed by Tennessee Gov. Bill Haslam to serve on the new governing board of the University of Memphis.

The formation of the local board supports the governor's continuing efforts to give the university more autonomy. The board will have the authority to appoint the campus president, manage the university budget, set tuition, and oversee other operational tasks.

"It is a great honor to join respected community leaders in guiding the bright future of the University of Memphis," North said. "The continued economic growth of the Mid-South and Sedgwick's expansion in the Memphis area depend on the sustainability of an excellent public university at the heart of our community. I applaud Gov. Haslam's commitment to ensuring that the management of our esteemed university is driven by local leadership."
