Hurricane Sandy prompts Sedgwick office closings along the Eastern seaboard

Hurricane Sandy is a very large storm that continues to cause widespread disruptions throughout the southeast, mid-Atlantic, and northeast coastal areas of the United States.

During all inclement weather our top priority is the safety of our colleagues. Due to the ferocity of this storm, we have decided to close the following offices on Monday, October 29, 2012:

- Stamford and Windsor, CT
- Washington, DC
- Boston, MA
- Hunt Valley and Towson, MD
- Whippany and Marlton, NJ
- Melville, NY
- Philadelphia, Radnor and King of Prussia, PA

Although we anticipate that these offices will be operational on Tuesday, it is too soon to know the damage that Hurricane Sandy will leave behind. We will continue to monitor the situation and notify you should we learn that these or other offices become impacted further.

We also want you to know that every effort has been made to ensure uninterrupted service for our clients, claimants, and business partners during this weather event. Our business continuity plans have been put into action, back-up colleagues have been notified, and phones and operations have been re-routed to offices outside of the storm's path.

Thank you for your patience and understanding. For those clients with operations and employees in the path of Hurricane Sandy, we wish you and yours safe-keeping.
