

Sedgwick continues Asia growth plan with new Singapore office

SINGAPORE, 5 December 2019 – Sedgwick, a leading global provider of technology-enabled risk, benefits and integrated business solutions has announced the opening of its new office in Singapore in the Prudential Tower, the distinguished landmark at the city’s financial and business centre. It is a strong testament of Sedgwick’s commitment to expanding the company’s presence in the region and establishing ‘Asia’s centre of excellence’.

The move follows the recent integration of the Insight Adjusters and Surveyors team, as Sedgwick continues its sustained growth plan across the region.

The new office premises will allow the combined team of experts to maximise its collective strengths and concentrate on unified efforts to drive business growth with an even stronger customer focus.

“We are delighted to announce the opening of our new Singapore office,” said Nehemiah Neo, non-executive chairman for Sedgwick Asia and executive chairman for Sedgwick’s operation in Singapore.

“A new and bigger space is the natural next step as Sedgwick continues to build on its growing market presence with the integration with Insight Adjusters. The combined team will come together and work under the same roof. This new office is located in the landmark of the city’s financial and business centre, providing us with an excellent facility and environment to continue to serve our clients and their customers well, if not better.”

James Ong, CEO of Sedgwick Asia said: “The new location offers enormous opportunity for Sedgwick and furthers our commitment to providing exceptional service, which is expected from a global company like Sedgwick. Our plan is to take full advantage of the company’s unique strength, reputation and global resources, using innovation, integration and outstanding customer service to drive long-term relationships with clients and sustainable growth.”

Sedgwick’s new Singapore office opening ceremony was held on Wednesday, November 27, 2019 and attended by Sedgwick’s International CEO, Ian Muress and other senior executives from Sedgwick International, Sedgwick Singapore, Sedgwick Asia and other strategic partners.
