

Sedgwick launches strategy for long-term growth in France

PARIS, 18 October 2018 – Sedgwick, a leading global provider of technology-enabled risk, benefits and integrated business solutions, today announced the company’s new strategy to lead the world’s future of claims management. The company also established new long-term targets, reaffirmed its current capabilities and defined growth strategies for France one of the company’s key markets.

After an exciting market launch with 250 invited clients and colleagues in Paris, Dave North, Sedgwick’s president & CEO, outlined plans to build on the integration of Cunningham Lindsey in France under the Sedgwick brand.

“This is a great time for Sedgwick in France having successfully bought Cunningham Lindsey France. With our strong leadership, an unparalleled portfolio of products and services and an ambition to yet further expand in growing markets, Sedgwick can continue to thrive as the world’s largest claims administrator.”

“Sedgwick is looking toward continued growth as we continue to leverage the strength of the wider Sedgwick organization while providing exceptional services across all our unrivalled international businesses”, said Ian V. Muress, CEO Sedgwick international.

Consolidating services under one brand

Sedgwick recognized the need for a global provider that can deliver professional, high-quality claims solutions and focus its long-term strategy to bring those solutions to market. In response to client needs, Sedgwick has expanded its scale and capabilities, strengthening its service offering for customers.

Sedgwick France is recognized for the quality it delivers to both carriers and major organizations in a wide range of services including property, major and complex loss, general and product liability/recall, bodily injury, fine arts, marine, environmental services and claims management.

Olivier Vial, CEO of Sedgwick France, said: “With the support of Sedgwick we can greatly enhance our capabilities in France, using technology, innovation and the brainpower of more than 20,000 colleagues. We can now also extend the solutions we can offer to our clients to include global presence and additional services. Coming new into the Sedgwick family, the enthusiasm to work together has been overwhelming.”

Sedgwick's integration team continues to work toward consolidating the combined operations under the Sedgwick brand. Using one name across all markets and business lines will strengthen the brand identity and reinforce the company's position as the global industry leader.

Muess commented: "Not only are we bigger, we are also better together. The company's depth of talent, business knowledge and market relationships are truly unmatched in the industry."

Reaching more clients wherever they are with a solid global footprint

Sedgwick's footprint now includes a significant presence in hundreds of locations across more than 65 countries with the ability to service clients in over 100 territories. Sedgwick's acquisition of OSG in Ireland, Vericlim, the expansion of its Canadian operations and Cunningham Lindsey have brought Sedgwick firmly into the international arena.

Entering a new phase of long-term growth

With nearly 50 years of experience, Sedgwick reaffirms its commitment to be at the cutting edge of claims management by continuing to broaden its solutions in France.

Over the next few years, Sedgwick will work together to leverage combined resources and extended relationships to expand its client base. Recent joint business development efforts have already started yielding great results.
