

Sedgwick strengthens UK leadership team with key appointments

LONDON, 11 October 2019 – Sedgwick, a leading global provider of technology-enabled risk, benefits and integrated business solutions, has made two key leadership appointments to support the ongoing growth of its UK operations.

These appointments optimally position Sedgwick’s high-performing UK leadership team to deliver on the company’s strategic development plans, particularly in the areas of environmental forensic investigations delivered under the EFI Global brand, as well as forensic accounting and commercial claims services.

Adrian Cartwright-Bain has been promoted to oversee a newly created specialist division focused on Sedgwick’s forensic accounting services and EFI Global’s environmental forensic investigations. As a market-renowned adjusting and accounting practitioner with proven experience as a finance director, Cartwright-Bain is well placed to lead and grow both service areas. In his new role, he will work with Paul White, Sedgwick’s CEO for the UK, on expanding services for forensic accountancy and environmental/fire investigations to support client needs and market demands. Cartwright-Bain will also manage the professional standards and elements of the UK’s risk and compliance activity.

In addition, Peter Farrelly has been appointed managing director of commercial claims services and will assume overall responsibility for this Sedgwick offering. Joining the company’s UK operational leadership team, Farrelly brings a wealth of senior management experience as a renowned major and complex loss practitioner. In this new role, he will focus on the continued expansion of Sedgwick’s services and lead several key initiatives, most notably a talent development programme to ensure the company is well positioned to meet client needs long into the future.

“I’m delighted to share the news of these appointments and offer my congratulations to Adrian and Peter on their new roles,” Paul White, Sedgwick’s CEO for the UK said. “We will continue to develop Sedgwick’s UK business and strengthen an already exceptional leadership team. Our client offerings are second to none, and we are focused on bringing the best expertise to lead the industry. I am excited for our future growth prospects.”
